Dear David:

Congratulations and welcome to the new International Advisory Board of the University of Colorado Real Estate Center (CUREC). Your board is one of the nation's most important and prestigious real estate groups and one which we believe will have a profound influence on the future of society and the real estate industry.

To help guide the growth and transformation of the university's real estate center, a nominating committee from the former National Advisory Board and the Council Board of Directors was assembled last summer to solicit nominations and then identify top real estate professionals to form an international advisory board. Thank you for agreeing to be nominated and I am very pleased to inform you that you have now been officially appointed to serve a three-year term on the University of Colorado Real Estate Center's International Advisory Board – congratulations. This is a very high honor and one which we believe will be instrumental in truly transforming real estate education and the future of the real estate industry globally. I personally hope that the experience will also be equally rewarding to you, both personally and professionally.

Since its founding nearly three decades ago, the CU Real Estate Center has been a recognized national leader in meeting both the educational and business needs of the real estate profession. Today as we embark on a new trajectory we are pleased to include you as a part of our tradition and our future.

Thank you for all that you do in supporting our mission and the University of Colorado. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact directly me at 1-303-492-8966 or at Michael.Kercheval@Colorado.EDU.

Most sincerely yours,

Michael P. Kercheval
Executive Director
