

October 6, 2014

Thank you for your thoughtful gift of $150,000 to the U.S. Fund for UNICEF, received on October 1, 2014. Your continued support helps us to reach our goal of ZERO preventable child deaths and to offer children a safe world in which to grow and learn. I am grateful for your support and time as a Board Member, both of which have helped make the U.S. Fund for UNICEF stronger and UNICEF able to save and improve more children's lives throughout the world.

Our shared belief in child survival is a reality we can achieve together. Over the last four years, UNICEF has worked to reduce the number of preventable child deaths from 25,500 to 17,000 a day. While this is progress, 17,000 deaths of children a day are 17,000 too many.

Thanks to your dedication, UNICEF can continue to work towards creating a world where every child grows up healthy and educated and where each young life is filled with possibility and peace. Together, we are doing whatever it takes to save a child.

Best regards,
